

Founder's Address of Gajanantha Arakkattalai

Greetings and best wishes to all..!!

Our Gajanantha Arakkattalai (Trust) is working tirelessly to create positive change in society through integrated efforts and services for social transformation.

Throughout Tamil Nadu, our organization has been providing numerous social welfare services to the community over the past 30 years. Our Gajanantha Arakkattalai, established in Coimbatore, offers multi-disciplinary services in the fields of social welfare, health, and spirituality. Our motto is

Among our key activities, Pregnancy Care Classes (Karpatharini) hold a prominent place, which combines traditional wisdom with modern science to guide mothers toward holistic development of body, mind, and soul. We have provided training to lakhs of pregnant women in primary health centers.

Furthermore, for all community couples, we offer matrimonial connection services through the Suyamvaram App, with over 1 lakh horoscopes registered. Our foundation has arranged more than 5,000 marriages.

Under the title Seethanam (Pre-Marital Course), we provide guidance training for well-being before marriage; Fit for Future skill development training for the younger generation; counseling to strengthen family unity (Valam); special summer camps for children; Uzhavarapani to clean temples; Farmers' Service Center for agricultural development; and various projects including environmental protection.

Moreover, with the principle that continuously serving lakhs of people is true dharma, from the beginning until today, I and our team are tirelessly united, ready to support you, guide you, and share joy. Let us transform our noble service journey into a deep and meaningful experience.

Let everyone live a happy and fulfilling good life..!!
